Workshop on Sustainable Finance and Development

U Naples Federico II

5 - 6 February 2026

Location: University of Naples Federico II

The University of Naples Federico II, in collaboration with the Centre for Studies in Economics and Finance (CSEF) and with the Money and Finance Research Group (MoFiR) is pleased to announce that a workshop on Sustainable Finance and Development will be held in Naples (Italy) on February 5-6, 2026.

The organising committee invites submissions of high-quality theoretical and empirical research on the following topics:

- Climate-related financial risks, pricing mechanisms, and macro-financial policies
- Sustainable finance, green finance and fintech
- Corporate climate disclosure, emission-reduction incentives, and governance
- ESG investment standards, ratings, and anti-greenwashing measures
- Social and distributional impacts of the green transition (e.g., inequality, jobs)
- Inclusive green finance and pathways to the Sustainable Development Goals

The workshop provides an opportunity for discussions about policy-relevant research in an informal and interactive environment.

Accommodation costs (up to two nights) for presenters and invited discussants will be reimbursed. There is no conference fee, and all meals are included.
